Dear Reader,

You watched it all happen...

...The subprime mortgage market collapsing — taking the financial and real estate industries with it...

...The $672.6 trillion of toxic debt created by Wall Street in outstanding OTC derivatives — that's wiping out the life savings of millions...

...And the skyrocketing unemployment — with ACTUAL jobless numbers reaching as high as 22 percent.

But do you really KNOW what's going on?

The government has gone out of its way to distort — and in many cases deliberately cover up — the seriousness of the current financial situation. And that makes it difficult for you to protect your own financial future.

Fortunately, there's an easy way for you to quickly learn the truth about the financial crisis — AND the simple steps you need to take in order to survive it.

You can discover...

- How the Federal Reserve created the massive stock market and real estate bubble that wiped out the life savings of a generation...
- The truth about the world's $672 trillion derivatives market — and why the worst is yet to come...
- Why real estate prices continue to plummet lower and lower and will stay down for decades...
- How you can survive the coming era of hyper-inflation... out of control taxes... and continuing record unemployment...
- And much more!
